Living Rooms/Great Rooms/Family Rooms

ESMERALDA FARACHE, CINDY BROMBERG

The challenge we faced in the formal living room, which needed to be designed for entertaining, was to achieve a scale of intimacy and comfort within the massive space and high ceilings, all while maintaining a level of formality dictated by the grandeur and essence of this magnificent home. The result is an impeccable mix of luxurious and classic materials providing a warm welcome to the homeowners and their guests.

Bedrooms

The master bedroom was designed to exude luxury, elegance, comfort and serenity. The docile palette and rich materials are an integral part of the final result.
